

Tania McCartney + Jess Racklyeft

Ivy Bird

It's her secret treasure nest.

Ivy likes shiny bits and pieces.
She hides them under sticks and stones.

The most playful birds call their friends,
then flap their wings

and play tag in the clouds.

Ivy has the prettiest voice. She can trill and chirp, peep and chatter, cackle, tweet and squawk.

All the birds join in.

After dinner,
the bird bath is filled,

and a bright little chick splashes the day away.